BIOGRAPHY

Originally from Bristol, Frankie is rare individual who matches his raw natural dance talent with hard work and discipline and has developed into one of the best house dancers in Europe.

Having trained from a young age in numerous dance styles, Frankie was selected to be part of the Swindon Youth Dance Academy where he was mentored by some of the best instructors in the UK. From there, he went on to earn a degree in contemporary dance from London Contemporary Dance School at The Place.

Upon finishing his studies, Frankie has focussed mainly on the house dance style, gaining respect at competitions and events worldwide. He was also invited to join Plague where he is now a prominent member of the team.

Frankie is also part of collectives Konoha, InDaHouse and Soul Footwork.
